VOLUME 42 NO. 4

January 2011

THE LOCKLETTER

Diane Whitaker, President

Editor: Bobbie Way

President's Message

As I look at the calendar there are only 2 days left till the New Year -- as the old saying goes, "How Time Flies!" We had a good 2010 and I know it will continue into 2011.

Remember the January 8 meeting, held at Ross Library 10 a.m., will be in combination with the Ross Library program -- Bill Foster's Transformation. Russ Nelson and Jack Irwin will speak about Bill and Ray Heffner will speak about the art work, Transformations, an enjoyable art piece on-loan to Ross Library from the Foster Family for the community to view.

Also, remember to bring in your letter and books for the Write, Read, Write project. Pat Burd will pick them up after the short meeting following the Foster dedication.

Who will be our honorees for Outstanding Woman of the Year and Emerging Star? Soon it will be time for the naming of our next Outstanding Women of the Year. Those of you who are past outstanding AAUW women, please e-mail me your suggestions. The deadline to AAUW is early February, so we need to start collecting names. All members can submit names for the Emerging Star honoree. My e-mail is missmarple19@yahoo.com

So as we step into 2011 make a resolution you can keep; one that will be beneficial to you and yours. Have a Happy New Year!

President Diane

Branch Minutes, November 4, 2010

President Diane Whitaker called the Meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. at the Ross Library. Eleven members and two guests were present. Laura Long introduced the speaker, April Henry, the Leadership Clinton County Coordinator. She gave a power-point presentation illustrating how Leadership Clinton Co. works and the various areas the volunteers must master in order to graduate from the program. It was formed in 2000 to train volunteers for non-profit boards and work in the community.

Secretary's Minutes: Carol Pollard moved that the minutes be accepted as printed. The motion was seconded and passed.

Treasurer's Report: There were no changes from the report printed in the November Lockletter.

Write, Read, Write: Chairman Pat Burd has been in touch with two fifth-grade classes at the Mill Hall Elementary School. Forty-seven students have written letters which were given to the members following the meeting.

Pat requested that the books for the students be brought to the January 8 meeting.
